CONSULTING AGREEMENT

This CONSULTING AGREEMENT (“Agreement”) is made by and between Liquidia Technologies, Inc., (“Company”), a Delaware corporation, and Arktoros, LLC, a Pennsylvania limited liability company (“Independent Contractor”), as of August 20, 2020 (the “Effective Date”).

1. ENGAGEMENT OF SERVICES.

The Company hereby engages the Independent Contractor, and the Independent Contractor accepts the engagement to provide the Company with such consulting services as may reasonably be requested by the Company from time to time in connection with the Company’s PRINT® Product Platform and associated tooling, materials, and prototyping (“Services”). “PRINT® Product Platform” shall mean Liquidia’s proprietary products, micro and/or nano-particles, patterned particle molding film, particle and mold film handling, and Liquidia’s instrumentation, processes, systems, know-how, intellectual property, manufacturing and technology infrastructure that produces the same. In particular, through the Independent Contractor’s services under this Agreement, its managing member, Steve Bariahtaris, shall be made available and appointed to and serve as the Company’s Interim Chief Financial Officer and the Company’s Principal Financial Officer for purposes of the Company’s periodic SEC reporting obligations (collectively, the “Interim Chief Financial Officer”).

2. COMPENSATION.

In consideration of the Services to be performed by the Independent Contractor under this Agreement, the Company will pay the Independent Contractor the flat rate of $65,000 per month, for time spent on mutually accepted consulting services in and as Interim Chief Financial Officer.

3. EXPENSES.

The Independent Contractor will be reimbursed for ordinary and necessary expenses incurred by the Independent Contractor in the performance of services hereunder that have been expressly approved in advance by the Company, provided that the Independent Contractor has furnished such documentation for authorized expenses as the Company may reasonably request. The Independent Contractor shall submit written documentation and receipts where available, itemizing the dates on which expenses are incurred. The Company shall pay the Independent Contractor the amounts due pursuant to submitted reports.

4. OWNERSHIP OF INVENTIONS / WORK PRODUCT.

A. The Independent Contractor agrees that any inventions, discoveries, improvements, processes, technology or know-how arising or made directly or indirectly from its performance of advisory services under this Agreement or that are based on, derived from, or related to information received from the Company and any patents issuing thereon shall be the property of and are hereby assigned to the Company. The Independent Contractor further agrees that all original works of authorship which are made by the Independent Contractor (solely or jointly with others) in the course of performance of services under this Agreement and which are protectable by copyright are "works made for hire," as that term is defined in the 1976 Copyright Act as amended (title 17 of the United States Code). In order to permit the Company to claim rights to which it may be entitled under this Paragraph or applicable laws, and to insure that there is no conflict with any business or activities of the Company, all inventions, discoveries, improvements, processes, technology and know-how (whether or not patentable and whether or not reduced to practice) and all works of authorship which the Independent Contractor may conceive or make (either by himself or jointly with others) during the term of this Agreement with the Company (and during the six months following the termination of this Agreement) and related to the Services performed under this Agreement shall be promptly disclosed to the Company in confidence.

B. Whenever requested by the Company, the Independent Contractor shall execute patent applications and copyright registrations and such other documents considered necessary by the Company or its counsel to apply for and obtain letters, patents and copyright registrations in the United States, foreign countries, or both, as the Company may deem advisable, or to otherwise protect such inventions, discoveries, improvements, processes, technology, know-how or works of authorship for the benefit of the Company coming within the Company's rights as provided for in Section 4.A. The Independent Contractor shall also make such assignments and execute such other instruments as may be necessary to convey to the Company the ownership and exclusive right in and to such inventions, discoveries, processes, technology, know-how, patent applications, patents, works of authorship or the like. The Company shall bear all of the expenses in connection with the obtaining of such rights. The Independent Contractor further agrees, whether or not he/she is still providing services to the Company, to cooperate to the extent and in the manner requested by the Company in the prosecution or defense of any such patent or copyright claims or any litigation or other proceeding involving any inventions, discoveries, improvements, processes, technology, know-how or works of authorship covered by this Agreement in any country of the world, but all time and expenses thereof shall be paid by the Company. The foregoing covenant contemplates the inclusion of any improvements of properties, rights, systems, inventions, works of authorship and the like presently held by the Company or any affiliate thereof.

C. If Independent Contractor has any rights to any inventions, discoveries, developments, improvements, processes, technology, know-how, or trade secret, arising under this Agreement in accord with Section 4.A, that cannot be assigned to Company, Independent Contractor unconditionally and irrevocably waives the enforcement of such rights, and all claims and causes of action of any kind against Company with respect to such rights, and agrees, at Company's request and expense, to consent to and join in any action to enforce such rights. If Independent Contractor has any right to inventions, discoveries, developments, improvements, processes, technology, know-how, or trade secret, arising under this Agreement in accord with Section 4.A, that cannot be assigned to Company or waived by Independent Contractor, Independent Contractor unconditionally and irrevocably grants to Company during the term of such rights, an exclusive, irrevocable, perpetual, worldwide, fully paid and royalty-free license, with rights to sublicense through multiple levels of sublicenses and without any duty to report or provide any accounting for such exploitation, to make, have made, sell, offer for sale, use, reproduce, create derivative works of, distribute, publicly perform and publicly display by all means now known or later developed, such rights.
